THE THIRSTY CROW

On a very hot summer day in the fields, a thirsty crow flew everywhere in search of water. Suddenly, his gaze landed on a pitcher on the ground with little water in it. The water level was too low, and the pitcher had a narrow neck, because of which the crow could not drink the water.

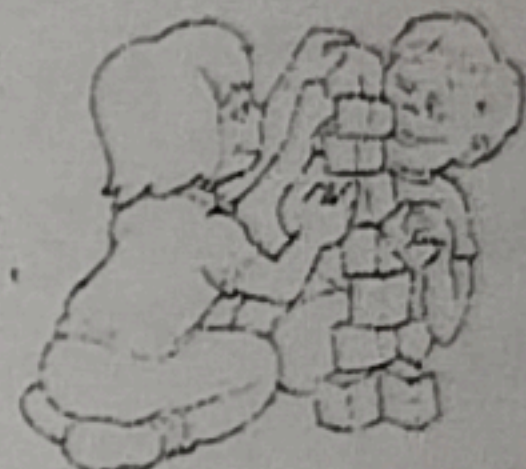

Then an idea came to him. He started picking the pebbles scattered near the pitcher and dropping them into it one by one. As pebbles went into the pitcher, the water rose. The crow drank the water and thanked mother nature.

BUBBLES GOES TO SCHOOL

It was Bubbles first day to school. Bubbles mom gave him a new bag new bottle and a new tiffin. But Bubbles was crying, " I don't want to go to school."

In school when Bubbles saw the children playing and enjoying he left his mom's hand and ran to the swings. Bubbles got new friends and he enjoyed playing in the sand pit. He went to the music room and sang many rhymes. He participated in the activities like hand printing, thumb printing building blocks and clay modelling.

Bubbles had fun on the first day at school and it was time to go home.

When mom came to pick him up he hugged her tightly and said

" It was fun to come to school."
